Proposal	Increase the number of risk assessments undertaken to increase income by £20k
Outline Summary / Description of Proposal
The Service has a statutory responsibility to undertake the sampling and risk assessment of all private water supplies other than those serving single properties. There are approximately 1000 such supplies in Powys. The team that currently undertakes this work is also responsible for managing the Council's 19 cemeteries. This split in duties often disrupts planned risk assessment and sampling programmes. By increasing the number of risk assessments undertaken per annum there is the potential to increase income by £20k. However the conflicting demands of the cemeteries service will remain. If necessary assistance may be required from other parts of the service to meet the revised target.
